The American Association on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities Wisconsin Chapter (AAIDD-WI) Annual Conference "Promoting Wellness For All" will be a day of hands-on experiences with local leaders committed to creating equitable and healthy communities for all. This conference provides a unique opportunity to become more involved in the field and network with people who share your professional passion.

We encourage students and early career professionals to submit proposals for posters. To be eligible for this opportunity, a student/early career professional must a) be the first author on a poster proposal and b) provide a brief (250 word) proposal description.

AAIDD-WI will cover your registration fee to the conference if your proposal is selected.

16 JUNE 2023
MOUNT MARY UNIVERSITY IN MILWAUKEE, WI

This event is the perfect opportunity to further explore your career path and establish professional relationships!
